

Cleveland

Summer Bucket List

- Buy picnic supplies from the West Side Market & picnic in the Metroparks or at Wendy Park.
- Watch the Sunset from Lakewood Park, Voinovich Park, or the East 55th Street Marina.
- Visit a new (to you) restaurant.
- Hit up a riverfront patio in The Flats.
- Ride scooters or bikes around downtown.
- Play a round of golf, putt putt, or frisbee golf.
- Have a relaxing beach day.
- Grab a local coffee and walk through your favorite park.
- Float down the river in a kayak or stand up paddleboard.
- Cool down with some local ice cream.
- Visit the Cultural Gardens.
- Ride bikes through the Metroparks.
- Take a photo at all 6 Cleveland script signs.
- Visit a local nature center.
- Take a selfie with the Free Stamp.
- Visit the Holden Arboretum (we suggest a picnic).
- Hike a new trail in Cuyahoga Valley National Park.
- Explore the Towpath Trail by bike or on foot.
- Join a Take a Hike Walking Tour through downtown.
- Marvel in the artwork at Cleveland Museum of Art.
- Check out Asian Lantern Festival at Cleveland Metroparks Zoo.
- Visit the Cleveland Museum of Natural History.
- Learn something new at the Great Lakes Science Center.
- Participate in an outdoor yoga class.
- Volunteer with a local organization.
- Take the RTA somewhere new.
- Shop for produce at a local Farmer's Market.
- Pick your own fruit at a local farm.
- Try a new happy hour with friends.
- Attend a music event around town.
- Tag @theclebucketlist in your summer bucket list adventures!

